

RUSLAN MIRZAYEV

LOCATION

Baku, Azerbaijan

LANGUAGES

Azerbaijani, English, Russian and Turkish

MEDIATION PRACTICE AREA

Commercial mediation

EDUCATION

Harvard University Law School, Executive Program (PON), Advanced Negotiations, June 2017
George Washington University Law School, LL.M. in International and Comparative Law, 2011
Stockholm University Law School, LL.M. in International Commercial Arbitration Law, 2008
Baku State University Law School, Bachelor of Laws, 2007

EXPERIENCE

- 12 years of general experience, out of which over 5 years specifically in the practice of alternative dispute resolution and over 10 years dedicated to teaching of alternative dispute resolution.
 - Represented parties in multi-million arbitration cases and negotiations as a local counsel.
 - Attended numerous mediation proceedings at JAMS, other reputable mediation institutions and courts in the USA.
 - Took part in designing and implementing alternative dispute resolution schemes at courts;
 - Teaching mediation for judge candidates, attorneys, government officers, other professionals and students at Judicial Academy under the Ministry of Justice of Azerbaijan and Baku State University for the last 10 years.
 - Founder of a dispute resolution center called ARBME Dispute Resolution Services, dedicated to development of commercial arbitration and mediation in Azerbaijan.
-

ADDITIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

Lawyer in Azerbaijan since 2007;
Qualified to practice law in the State of New York since 2014 (a member of New York Bar);
Received the prestigious JAMS fellowship in 2017;

Received public service award from the George Washington University and commendation from the Governor of Hawaii, USA;

Wrote numerous articles on alternative dispute resolution and been published by reputable local and international law journals, including the Journal of International Arbitration (Kluwer).